CONTINGENCY CONTRACTING

- Contingency contracting supports military operations spanning the operational spectrum.
 - Disaster relief, humanitarian assistance, exercises and peacekeeping missions.
 - Major contingencies and mid to high intensity conflict.
 - Contingency contracting personnel serve as a proven combat support force multiplier, allowing commanders to supplement capabilities with goods and services in or near the mission area.
 - Provides commanders enhanced operational flexibility.
 - Integrates procurement planning into operational planning
 - Advises commanders how to integrate combat service support, commercially - available goods and services, assistance - in - kind and host nation support, Allied and international support, and support from other sources into a cohesive mission support infrastructure.

CONTINGENCY CONTRACTING

- Modular teams and cellular commands replace the practice of assigning individuals to combat and CSS.
- 4 - person modular CCO teams form the basic unit of maneuver for all Army contingency contracting.
- 100 - person CCO battalions.
 - 20 - person headquarters (with 3 organic CCO teams)
 - Commands 20 more CCO teams and 4 - person teams.
- Deploy organic teams vice individuals (less tasking).
- Contracting commanders who plan the mission coordinate the contracting soldiers performing the mission.
- Allows collective training and testing of teams/commands.
- Staffing a draft basing plan now.
